

Resolving Conflicts While Keeping All Body Parts Intact!

Girl: "How was work today?"

Guy: "Fine."

Girl: "Really - that's ALL you have to say?"

Guy: "What else is there to say? I went to work, put in my day, and now I'm home!"

Girl: "I always tell you about my day! But you never tell me about yours. Makes me think you're hiding something. Or that you don't like to talk to me!"

Guy: "Wow - how did we go from 'How was your day?' to 'You don't like to talk to me?!'"

Ahh ... the challenges of communicating! At Devoted to You, we'll walk you through some "Rules of Engagement" that will make you both victorious ... without the wounds our interactions can sometimes create. We'll cover things that will make you an expert communicator and also things you don't want to do (sometimes knowing what NOT to do is as helpful as knowing what to do!) We'll even cover how to crack the code on those secret messages we receive - and also send out!
